TURKEY THROWS

UP THE SPONGE

Constantinople, April 22.—The Greeks and the Servians today concluded an agreement with Turkey similar to that made between Bulgaria and Turkey by the terms of which hostilities are to be suspended for ten days.

The Grecian and Turkish governments also have agreed to begin the reparation of Turkish prisoners of war. The first batch of five thousand has been sent to the Turkish seaport of Mersina, in Asia Minor.

Shakespeare's Memory Kept Green.

London, April 23.—In accordance with time-honored custom the 349th anniversary of the birth of Shakespeare was observed today at Stratford-on-Avon, the birthplace of the immortal bard. The old world town was the mecca for hundreds of representatives of Shakespearean societies throughout the United Kingdom, among the number being many celebrated literary and dramatic lights.

JOKER IN THE INCOME TAX BILL

Washington, April 23.—Yes, there is a "joker" in the income tax bill. But in this legislation, for a change, the "joker" is all in favor of the people.

The possessors of swollen fortunes were much perturbed by the pending income tax legislation, and when the bill finally issued from the printers they read it with a great deal of interest. The first paragraphs were disquieting. They fixed the rates of taxation on private incomes—one per cent on an income of over $4,000 and under $20,000, two per cent on as much of the income as is above $20,000, three per cent on all of it above $50,000 annually, and four per cent on any excess of $100,000 per year. Under this graduation a plutocrat like John D. Rockefeller will be required to pay four per cent income tax on all his income except $100,000 per year. This was alarming. It was not until Wall Street read down to the corporation section that it felt the perhaps it had been judging the Democratic House too harshly. For, while individuals are assessed on a graduated scale, corporations are given a flat tax rate of one per cent no matter how large their annual profits. Even the great Steel Trust will be required to pay but one per cent tax on its vast earnings.

When the Wall Street lawyers read this far they smiled cynically. Yes, they had been too hasty in condemning the Democratic House. Here were the corporations receiving better treatment than individuals. It seemed almost like old times. But the smiles faded as they read on to the almost etoain shrdlu etaoin to the 'joker'.

For while the corporation escapes the graduated tax, the stock holder in the corporation doesn't. Up to $20,000 the stock holder's income corporation dividends is exempt from taxation—the corporation itself having already paid the one per cent on this amount. But on dividend income above $20,000 the stockholder pays one per cent, above $50,000 two per cent, and above $100,000 three per cent.

It didn't take Wall Street more than a minute to figure out that this meant that the small stockholder, the widow who invests the proceeds of her husband's small life insurance policy in stocks, the small investor everywhere, will be exempt from excessive taxation. It will put the chief burden of taxation on the rich alone.

Wall street would have much preferred to have the corporations themselves pay the graduated tax. For then the smallest stockholder, the holder of a single share, would be required to contribute from his slim dividends to pay the four per cent which such corporations as the Steel Trust will have to pay on the bulk of its earnings.

And in case the rich man would try to evade taxation on dividends by using the $20,000 exemption provision, that is, by scattering his investment among many corporations so that his dividends in no individual case amounted to more than $20,000, the new income tax bill specifically provides that in assessing incomes from dividend, all of the dividends from all sources must be treated as a lump. The individual gets his single $20,000 exemption and that is all.

The pending income tax bill is one of the most progressive measures ever submitted to Congress with hope of passage. From the first to the last paragraph it is pregnant with progressivism. Cleverness, even craft, has been used by its framer, Representative Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, but used to benefit the common people instead of the great financial interests.

Rescuer of Titanic Waifs a Bride.

New York, April 23.—Miss Margaret Hayes, the wealthy young woman who figured prominently in the public prints a year ago as the rescuer of the two French children, Michael and Edmond Navratil, who were saved from the Titanic, on which their father was lost, today became the bride of Dr. Charles D. Easton of New York. The wedding took place in St. Thomas's Church, the Rev. Ernest M. Stirratt officiating, and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes, in West Eighty-third street.

Central League Magnates Hopeful.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 23.—Under conditions that appear to be anything but encouraging, the Central League of Baseball Clubs bravely lined up toady for the start of the championship season. Weather conditions seriously handicapped every club of the league in the spring practice work, while one or two of the plants were all but destroyed in the recent floods. Notwithstanding these drawbacks, President Heilbron and the club

HOUSE PUTS ONE OVER

PASSES ENFORCEMENT ABOLITION BILL OVER GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS.

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 22.—The fact that W. J. Caudill of Hobart, state enforcement officer, tendered his resignation to Gov. Cruce last night, did not deter the House of Representatives in passing over the governor's veto the bill abolishing the position which Caudill held. In his resignation which takes effect June 1, Caudill took the position that his tenure of the place might have had something to do with the legislature wanting to abolish it. The bill which the governor vetoed on yesterday and which the house so smoothly put over, does not bear the emergency clause, so would not become operative until ninety days after the legislature adjourns. It has yet to run the gamut of the senate, and it is predicted tonight it will be successful there.

There was little ceremony in the house. Few speeches were made in favor of the veto and few against it.

If you Value Your Eyesight, see An Expert Optometrist. I have spent years preparing myself to perfect the refraction of the eye. My modern equipment, backed by this long experience, is your Guarantee of Satisfaction. A. D. COON, Ramsey's Drug Store, Ada, Okla.

On roll call the bill was adopted, notwithstanding the governor's objections by vote of 71 to 15. The proposition had votes to spare. Those voting to support the governor's veto were Messrs. Christian, Cummings, Dearing, Farrall, Griggs, Hill of Washita, Howe, Lemon, Matthews, Morgan of Mayes, Parkhurst, Rider, Sharp, Wiley and Woodard. The absentees were Messrs. Chase, Cook, Coyne, Dizney, Emanuel, Hill of Pittsburg, Joseph, Morris, Peters, Rose, Ruby and Stilwell. All other members of the House voted against the governor's veto message.

The Senate found its troubles today in a veto of the McClintic bill to abolish positions of twelve deputy game and fish wardens which Gov. Cruce sent to that branch of the lawmakers this afternoon. The message was made a special order for tomorrow afternoon. The governor told the senate that he vetoed an act of the regular session which sought the same end; however, it made additional sweeping changes in the game laws. An adjournment of the legislature prevented opportunity to act upon that veto.

Graduated Land Tax Defeated.

The House worked in committee of the whole on minor appropriation bills that have passed the senate. The joint resolution by Senators Russell and Barrett to amend the constitution for levying a graduated land tax, lasted about five minutes in committee of the whole. After the proposition was read a motion to report it favorably failed by vote of 34 to 24.

The general departmental budget for the next two years was reported by the House Committee on Appropriations. The bill carries about $1,140,000 each year. All contingent expenses have been trimmed, according to Mr. Durant, the chairman.

Gov. Cruce sent to the legislature a telegram received from members of the Oklahoma Congressional delegation, urging the legislature to do something toward tightening the probate laws and throwing more protection around the Indian minor. Unless this is done, the message said, the federal government would take charge of Indian minors' estates, to the entire exclusion of the state. Speaker Maxey received a similar message from Washington. Gov. Cruce told the legislature this was the second time he had laid the matter before it. Mr. Hill of Pittsburg told the House there was adopted during the regular session a bill upon which the governor, Senator Owen and the Interior department had agreed, but the bill died in a senate committee.

Gov. Cruce submitted for legislative action the bills authorizing organization of farmers' mutual insurance companies, and to authorize townships to vote bridge bonds, which he vetoed after the regular session. He also recommends favorable action upon the request of the Oklahoma City Trades Council for the legislature to submit at the special election to be held Aug. 5 the eight-hour law

Speaker Maxey today replied to Gov. Cruce's letter of yesterday concerning investigation of the executive department, saying it would be reached by the committee as soon as possible.

The governor's request for an open hearing and to be permitted to cross examine witnesses was denied. The speaker said the committee was not placing any one on trial, and the open feature requested by the governor was against the committee's policy adopted early in its work.

A grouch is a very unpopular person, but he sometimes does a good service to a person by showing him a glimpse of himself as others see him. Of course the picture may be rather highly colored and far from being true to life, but it sometimes causes the original to conduct a rigid self examination which will result in great good to himself. On the other hand, the one portrayed may resent any well meant suggestion of a true friend that there are some defects in his makeup which he might do well to remedy, although such a friend is really a friend indeed, and his intentions far different from those of the grouch, who only aims to wound and cause his victim to suffer. It is far better heed the admonition of a tried friend than wait for the grouch to come along with his venomous tongue.

Big Bill Nelson of the Kansas City Star has been declared not guilty of contempt of court, but if charged with contempt FOR the particular court which tried to land him in jail on the charge the chances are that he would be forced to plead guilty. When the next election rolls around it's up to doughnuts that the old fellow exhibits his contempt in a manner that will retire the tyrannical judge to the political graveyard. That will be one fight in which he will have the support of all his brother editors regardless of politics, and when you get the united press after a man they generally get his goat.

Find the Good in People.

A contributor to the May American Magazine says:

"If there isn't some good in everyone, what are they here for?"

"Anybody can point out anybody else's bad qualities. If you want to distinguish yourself go around pointing out good qualities."

"Pick out the man whom everyone dislikes. Select the one you feel could best be spared from your office, from your circle of acquaintances, from the community in which you live. Ask yourself if there isn't something good about him.

"Put him on a mental dissecting table. Cut him to pieces and see what's in him. Remember—you are looking for the good. Throw away the bad in him and forget it. Make a list of his good qualities. It will surprise you how many you can find.

"The next time you hear him criticized, tell people the things you know about him—the good things. You'll at least be different and you'll find that it does you more good than it does him.

"How would you feel if you knew that people whenever they talked about you talked only about what was bad in you. You know it's there, plenty of it, but you'd rather not have it talked about. It's much nicer to have only your good points discussed.

"Give the other fellow the kind of a deal you like yourself. If you can say nothing good about him, say nothing.

"There are mighty few people in the world we can't say something good about if we try. The trouble is, we don't try.

"And yet, the more good you find in other people the more good other people will find in you.

"Women, too, can make this experiment."

The Majestic will present a powerful temperance lesson this evening in the picture story "Drink's Lure."

"It is a wonderful story with a splendid plot. Another part of the program will be a western story, "The Buckskin Coat." Coming tomorrow: "What Happened to Mary."

The program at the De Sota this evening will indeed be one entitled to be termed ideal. The first part will consist of a Flying A drama, "An Eastern Flower." A very charming story with good western background. Another good feature will be "The Wax Lady."

Mrs. Henry M. Furman and her daughter, Miss Florence Furman, will entertain a party of young people who will arrive tomorrow to attend the Beta Theta Pi dance in the Skirvin Thursday evening. In the party will be Miss Mattie Clare Gano and Miss Helen Jenkins of Guthrie, Miss Gladys Anderson of the Oklahoma State University at Norman, Mr. Glenn Shawson of Muskogee and Henry Marshall Furman, Judge and Mrs. Furman's son, who will come up from Norman for the event. The entire party will go to Norman the following day and Lanham go hand in hand. Next time is Centers time for a collection. We are just bound to have a new organ.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and thin, weak, falling hair.

The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, harsh, faded hair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the color in a few days; and don't be tormented with dandruff, itching scalp and loose, falling hairs. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy will quickly correct these troubles, and give color, strength and beauty to your hair.

CRUCE THREATENS TO VETO APPROPRIATION

According to an Oklahoma City dispatch to the Muskogee Times-Democrat, Gov. Cruce is about to use drastic measures to force the legislature to accede to his views on the abolition of some of the state schools. Says the T.D.:

"Oklahoma City, Ok., April 22.—Governor Cruce practically delivered the ultimatum through various members to the house of representatives today that he will veto the appropriation bills of all institutions he believes unnecessary unless the legislature submits the question of abolishing some schools to the people.

The governor not only demands that the legislature refer the schools but that the referendum be used along the lines indicated by him. He also demands the vote on schools be referred in the August primaries instead of at the 1914 general election."

Method in His Extravagance. "Haven't you a handsomer chafing-dish than that?" asked the customer. "You want something even more ornamental than this?" "Yes. I want one so beautiful and expensive that my wife wouldn't think of trying to cook anything in it."

NAMES WELL KNOWN TO HIM

"Earthquake Babies" of San Francisco Had Cognomens With Which Mr. Hearst Was Familiar.

William Randolph Hearst decided immediately after the famous earthquake and fire in San Francisco that one of his missions should be the care of the "earthquake babies," as the youngsters born during the excitement were called. Many of the mothers died or were lost in the falling buildings, and the Hearst relief committee was compelled to give the kids names as well as care.

The newspaper men close to Hearst exhausted all the Beths, Johns, Williams and Graces and then began naming the babies after distinguished Hearst writers of both sexes. There were many named Arthur Brisbane, Homer Davenport, Dorothy Dix, S. S. Chamberlain, John Temple Graves, and so on down the line.

One evening Mr. Hearst sauntered into the office of his relief committee, and a proud manager showed him the list of babies that had been saved and helped. The big publisher looked the list over once or twice in a rather puzzled manner. Then, with a twinkle in his eye, he looked up and asked:

"What is this, anyway, the pay roll?"—The Popular Magazine.

TWO VALUES TO CERTIFICATE

Obtained From Teacher to Secure Position as Caddy, It Also Serves as Business Recommendation.

The certificate of character that wins a boy a position on the golf links very often serves a double purpose. When the life of a caddy fails that same certificate is found useful in securing an office position. Some employers do not know what to make of that unusual recommendation.

"What's this?" said one man suspiciously to the boy who had applied for a situation. "It doesn't say a word about your writing or spelling or industry; it just states that you can be relied upon as a faithful caddy. What has that got to do with holding a steady job?"

"A whole lot," said the boy. "My teacher signed that. Most of the chaps up at the links have certificates of character from their teachers. If a fellow can be depended upon up there, why can't he be depended upon down here?"

That was an argument that fetched that particular employer and it has fetched many another man to whom similar references have been presented.

George Meredith's Faith. The English dramatist, Alfred Sutro, visited New York recently, and in speaking of the late George Meredith, with whom he was closely acquainted:

"One incident of George Meredith's life has always impressed me. He was about to undergo an operation, and had been told by his physician that the danger was considerable. He said nothing about it, however. The night before he was to go under the knife, he invited several of his dearest friends to dine with him. It was one of the jolliest little dinners of his life. The next day he was operated upon, and he came through it safely. After it was all over, he was asked if he were not afraid.

"'No,' he replied, 'I have the greatest faith in the kindness of nature. I felt that, whatever happened to this battered old cage of mine, that the little bird fluttering inside it would come to no harm.'—Youth's Companion.

Cholera and Tobacco.

For a long time it has been noted that smokers are relatively immune to certain epidemic sicknesses, especially cholera. Dr. Wenck, professor of the Imperial Institute of Berlin, has found that by manipulating cigars in water containing 1,500,000 cholera bacilli per cubic centimeter of twenty-four hours. The same doctor has proved that tobacco smoke rapidly kills the cholera germ. In a tobacco factory in Hamburg not a single case of cholera was found among the workers during the last great epidemic, though they lived in districts most affected by the plague.—Harper's Weekly.

Old London Parks.

London's parks in the old days were great places for sport, although even then the spectacle of a naked runner was—well, unusual. Coach and foot races were comparatively common, and in 1654 Cromwell himself was present in Hyde Park at "a hurling of a great ball by fifty Cornish gentlemen of one side and fifty on the other," the silver ball played with being the prize for the victors. And Cromwell himself tried his hand at coaching in the park with disastrous results, for the horses ran away and my lord protector was pitched into the roadway, narrowly escaping serious hurt from his pistol, which went off in his pocket.

Cement and Sentiment.

A home-builder in California hit upon a charming idea when he caused his little son to make the impression of his hands in the wet cement of the walk before his door. Although the imprint was made in 1887, the outlines of the little hands are perfectly clear, and will remain as a dainty souvenir of the boy's play days. It is just such touches of sentiment as this, says the Strand Magazine, that make the difference between a house and a home.

Pain as Love's Accompaniment. The loftiest and purest love too often does but inflame the cloud of life with endless fire of pain.—John Ruskin.

The rain of this morning was the most appreciated gift received from old Mother Nature in a long time. It began falling shortly before 8 o'clock and kept up a slow but steady downpour until noon, every drop sinking into the earth. NICKELL-HUGHES

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, at the home of M. S. Hughes and wife, parents of the bride, Mr. M. Nickell and Miss Lillian Hughes were united in marriage, Rev. M. B. Molloy officiating. The couple will spend a week at Altus and then return to Ada where they will continue to reside.

The bride has lived at Ada only two or three years, but during that brief period has won recognition as a young lady of refinement and one possessing many loveable traits of character.

The groom is employed at the Model bakery and is a young man of industrious and steady habits. The News extends its congratulations on his extreme good fortune and wishes the young couple a happy life together.

"Esquire" Not Understood.

A letter addressed to John Brown, Esquire, rested comfortably in a little town of Germany in the "E" compartment of the post department waiting to be called for by Mr. Esquire. One of the guide books warns against the use of this form of address explaining how it may be mistaken for a name.

Carrying It to Extremes.

"Your husband, I understand, is a clever after-dinner speaker?" "I understand so." "Does it keep him away from home much?" "Nearly every night. Would you believe it, when he does stay home it's got so he doesn't enjoy a meal unless I get up after the dessert and introduce him to the children and call upon him to make a few remarks?"

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Sheilhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Sheilhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

The report from Otis Weaver today is to the effect that there is little change in his condition. However, it is thought that it will not be necessary to perform a third operation. Although it will be a long time before he can be out again, it is hoped that no more complications will arise.

SYMPOTMS OF CONSUMPTION

Yield to Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that consumption is inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to that disease.

A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes: "I was ill for five months with a pulmonary trouble, and had the best of doctors; I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request)

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.

FLOOD LOSSES IN

MISSISSIPPI

Vicksburg, Miss., April 22.—Having widened more than a thousand feet, the Woodlawn crevasse continued caving in slowly on either end, and the rushing waters, which have rapidly spread throughout the counties of Issaquena, Sharkey and part of Washington, have also invaded the towns of Mayersville and Rolling Fork, while other smaller places will soon be under water.

Official announcement was given out during the afternoon that the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad train service north of here was annulled following the 3 o'clock train, which was the last to leave for Greenville.

Capt. W. B. Baker U. S. A., has issued 100,000 rations to various points north of here to provide for approximately 10,000 persons, whom it is believed will be affected, in addition to which the issuance of rations from the steamer Nakomis at the scene of the Woodlawn crevasse will be added to the prompt relief work.

Capt. Baker announced, after a conference with Gov. Brewer and Mayor Hayes, that a relief and refugee camp is to be established at Vicksburg. Mayor Hayes is appointed to take charge of the local relief work. Rations and feed for stock have been sent to the following, among other points, in anticipation of the needs which will occur: Rolling Fork, Mayersville, Blanton, Fulters, Valley Park, Browns Point, Flowers, Rodney, Ashland, Urina and Smedes.

At least two human lives were lost when the Woodlawn levee broke yesterday afternoon, the known victims being an aged negro man and a boy who lived near the high embankment and who were swept away without warning. Unconfirmed reports have reached here of the loss of other lives in the vicinity of the crevasse.

Several hundred persons who rushed to the levee for safety immediately after the break occurred were rescued during the night by the Vicksburg and Greenville packet steamer Ben-Hur. The government steamer Nakomis arrived at the scene early this morning and immediately sent out rescue crews with gasoline launches and skiffs.

The flood water was several feet deep in the town of Mayersville this morning. Duncansby was flooded from two to six feet.

Adjt. Gen. Fridge left today for Vicksburg to take personal charge of the rescue work in the territory being flooded by the crevasse in the Mississippi River levee near Mayersville. State Senator W. Clements of Rolling Fork had been designated by Gov. Brewer as relief agent. He will have charge of the distribution of supplies to those marooned by the waters from the break.

Gov. Brewer estimates that about 75,000 acres will be flooded by the latest crevasse.

The whole of Issaquena county, the southern half of Sharkey, the delta portion of Warren and a small part of Yazoo counties, will be inundated.

WOMAN'S JAW NOT AMENABLE TO ANY LAW OF INJUNCTION

DR. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

Purity in food, lower cost of living—these are the demands of the day.

Pure food is health, and health is economy itself. We cannot have health without healthful food.

The most healthful foods are the quickly raised flour foods—biscuit, cake, muffins, crusts and other pastry, when perfectly made from wholesome ingredients.

Dr. PRICE'S baking powder makes these foods in specially attractive, appetizing and wholesome form, and for both economic and hygienic reasons, such food should be more largely substituted for meat in the daily diet.

But bear in mind that alum, or unwholesome baking powder, can never make pure, wholesome food.

Boy Scouts Take the Candy 19 to 2.

Tuesday afternoon the Boy Scouts wiped up the earth with the second team of the High school on their field just south of J. W. Davis barn.

The line-up was as follows:

There will be another one the latter part of this week. Announcements will be made later. The sensation of the game was when Guy Young made a home run bringing in two scores. Aulds hit all over the field during the last part of the game. While Guy passed the first man to his bag they faded away all the rest of the time.

Every one is cordially invited to attend the games played on the Boy Scout diamond. CARLOS BRENTS

RETAILERS WILL MEET NEXT AT STILLWATER

Muskogee, Ok., April 23.—After awarding the state convention for 1913 to Stillwater, Okla., on July 8 and 9, the official board of the Oklahoma Retail Merchants association closed its session in Muskogee yesterday by naming the guests of the Muskogee Retailers association at a big banquet at the Hotel Severs last night. About one hundred local retailers of the Muskogee association, with their officers, were hosts at the banquet and ten or more visiting members of the state board were guests of honor.

Among other decisions reached by the state board at its meeting. Yesterday were to issue an official publication from the office of the state secretary-manager; to inaugurate a campaign for the amendment of the existing exemption laws, and to award the state convention to Stillwater, which during the past year showed the largest per capita payment of dues of any city in the state.

FENCING A HEALTHY PASTIME

Graceful Accomplishment, Writer Think, is Not Accorded the Position Which It Should Hold.

Fencing as a pastime has much to recommend it. It is convenient for men who work in town or country, does not consume as much time as golf, and is never stopped by bad weather.

Hitherto the expense has been against its popularity. On the other hand, were there more students of fencing the high subscriptions charged by school would show abatement. In France, for instance, where the art is an almost universal accomplishment and a compulsory subject, so to speak, for army men, expenses are quite moderate. The lowest estimate for a fencing outfit is $4.50. This last weapon is more easily managed than the foil, which calls for a preliminary training with the sword. Practically all fencing equipment comes from France.

It is suggested that fencing clubs be established on the lines of similar institutions of golf and boating. Good fencing masters can be secured on the continent of Europe for ten dollars a week, which is the custom to supplement by private lessons. French teachers are best, not on account of their nationality, but because they are carefully taught to teach—Harper's Magazine.

MAKES PROBLEM FOR JAILER

Women Prisoners in Jail Harder to Handle Than the Most Desperate of the Other Sex.

"I'd rather have 100 men under my charge than one woman," said the jailer of Raymond street jail, in Brooklyn.

"You see," he explained, "even the men we get in here, who have offended against the law, presumably have a respect for it, an idea of its necessity. We get pretty desperate men to lock up sometimes. They don't make any trouble for us. They do what they're told and keep their mouths shut."

"But the women!" The jailer wiped his forehead. "Do you know," he exclaimed, helplessly, "every blessed one of 'em wants to be a law unto herself!"

"They're antagonistic toward the rules. They won't do this and they won't do that. It almost seems as if they deliberately worked themselves up into rages over immaterial matters. And when a woman says 'I won't, and looks at you—' the jailer shook his head. 'It's a hard proposition,' he said.

"We're hampered in dealing with them. When a man doesn't behave himself, we know what we may do. He knows it, too. Our hands are tied when it comes to the women. What extra punishment are you going to hand out to them when they rebel?"

—New York Sun.

Bandit Pose in Vain.

John Bowman, a young business man of Los Angeles, sought to test the love of his fiancee, Miss Alice Young, and in consequence was made aware of two things: That the promise of a $250 reward could vanquish Cupid. That the police did not like to have young men pose as train robbers to test the love of their sweethearts. Bowman got two relatives to tell Miss Young he was a train robber and there was a reward of $250 posted for his capture. When Bowman called the young woman telephoned the police. Bowman spent several hours in jail before he was able to prove he was no train robber. Miss Young could not see the joke when she appeared at the police station. She introduced Bowman to another young man, whom she said she intended to marry next week. She wanted the reward for a trousseau.

Probably Assumed.

"Automobile foot" is a new disease for which Dr. Alexander Block of St. Louis stands sponsor. Automobile foot, due to lack of pedestrian exercise among automobile drivers, is a weakness that changes the walk into an ugly bole.

"The automobile habit is so widespread," said Dr. Block the other day, "that our ignorance of walking threatens to equal the broker's ignorance, real or assumed, of farm life."

"A broker spent the Christmas holidays on a Georgia farm. The farmer said to him, as he came back one morning from a before-breakfast stroll:

"Been out to hear the haycocks grow, I suppose?"

"Yes," answered the broker—and to tie a knot in a cord of wood and watch the hired man milk the milkweed."

Not Enough Goatskins.

The present demand for goat-kid skins exceeds anything of the kind before known, and the remotest places in India, South America, and Europe, and everywhere else goats are kept, are now visited by collectors to obtain them.

This demand arises from the recent discovery of new methods of treating the skins, which not only make them a substitute for calf-kid as shoe leather, but also render them suitable for use in dress trimming. When specially dyed and finished, they find great favor with dressmakers, and are used for vests, strappings, pipings, blouses, and even for underskirts for country wear. They also play a part in recent millinery.—Harper's Weekly.

NORMAL NOTES

By MOIKE CASSIDY

Prof. Lilly leaves tomorrow for Norman to meet with the principals and superintendents of the state. Mr. Lilly is going to look over the statistics held by Dr. Phelan. Miss Fausta Durham and Alice Payne seniors of the normal have positions in the schools of Konawa. They are two of the best students in the normal and no doubt they will do justice to their schools.

This is fine on the ground for that big game that will be pulled off Saturday. The boys had a hard workout yesterday and again today.

Pontotoc County High schools will be well represented in the First Annual Track and Field Meet that will be held the 2nd and 3rd of May. Ada High school which won the county affair at Roff expects to repeat her performance and add another trophy to the one she has already won. Roff High school who saw victory snatched from her in the last race at Roff and that by an error on the part of one of her runners is coming to redeem her fortunes. Fortner and Gwin will have another opportunity to carry their respective teams to victory and their efforts will be watched with intense interest. Austell of Center will be on hand to hurl the discus. With a little form he should be able to compete with the best in the state. Center will also be represented in the hurdles and jumps by strong athletes.

Norman, the plucky little pole vaulter of Francis will be on hand to try his hand with the bigger boys and will give a good account of himself.

ECHOES FROM COALGATE.

Coalgate Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises, "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Coalgate resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

S. R. Barnes, Coalgate, Okla., says:

"For a couple of years I was bothered by sharp pains across my kidneys and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I had to get up several times at night. I took medicine but nothing benefited me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. A couple of boxes made a permanent cure. I endorse Doan's Kidney Pills even more highly now than I did when I gave a testimonial before."

PRIZE FOR BEST ESSAY

ON GOOD ROADS

Washington, D. C., April 23.—A gold medal to the school boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 15 who writes the best composition, not to exceed 800 words, on the repair and maintenance of earth roads, is to be awarded by Logan Waller Page, director, office of public roads, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. All compositions must be submitted to Mr. Page before May 15, 1913, and the medal will be awarded as soon thereafter as the compositions can be graded. The composition may be based on knowledge gained from books or other sources, but no quotations should be made.

After many years' experience in dealing with the public road situation of the country, it is Mr. Page's belief that ignorance on the subject of repair and maintenance of roads is as much the cause of their bad condition as any other one factor. It is expected that the competition will bring about a better understanding of the subject of repair and maintenance in the rural districts.

Many children living in the rural districts have experienced the disadvantages of roads made impassable through a lack of proper maintenance and it is expected that their interest in the competition will stimulate greater interest among the parents. Bad roads have prevented many children from obtaining a proper education and have even prevented doctors from reaching the side of rural patients in time to save their lives.

Any child between the ages mentioned attending a country school, may compete. Only one side of the paper must be written on; each page should be numbered; the name, age, and address of the writer, and the name and location of the school which he or she is attending must be plainly written at the top of the first page. The announcement of the competition has been sent to the superintendents of schools in the rural districts. No further information can be obtained from the Office of Public Roads. This announcement should be plain to everyone, and all children will thus start on a basis of equality.
